GUNNEDAH CULTURAL PRECINCT

The Cultural Precinct offers a variety of well-appointed purpose built function rooms for community use. It is the perfect venue for conferences, with tiered style seating and caters for small or large, private or corporate functions – wedding receptions, parties, product launches or meetings. A range of spaces are available within The Cultural Precinct.

The Civic Theatre is your ideal location for theatre productions, plenary conference sessions or award presentations. It has multiple break out spaces, the Mooki Room, Gallery, Studio Room and Meeting Room. Each taking capacity of 15-20 people.

The Town Hall can host formal dinners of up to 250 people or a large theatre performance for 500. The Smithurst being a more intimate space great for all day workshops, training and rehearsals.

Below you will find further details on each space, including capacities, hire charges and the technical specifications of each venue. There is also a full comprehensive list of items available to hire to accompany your meeting listed on our venue booking form.

For bookings and queries on availability please contact us via phone on (02) 6740 2100 or email council@infogunnedah.com.au

MEETING ROOM & STUDIO ROOM

Ideal spaces for small meetings, additional break out spaces for larger conferences or art workshop. Both boasting natural light and flexibility to set the space as you see fit! Access to the kitchen for the meeting rooms is simple and makes preparing your catering much easier. Both rooms also feature cooling and heating facilities. The studio room boasts an intimate outdoor courtyard, giving the space and your event more flexibility and creative flow.

Spaces can be accessed from 81 Chandos Street via the Civic main entrance doors.

BICENTENNIAL CREATIVE ARTS CENTRE

This flexible area of the precinct can really wow your delegates or guests – walking in to a space filled with art by local residents. The venue has accessible access.

There is no better way to be immersed in the local culture of Gunnedah than by holding your next meeting or event in our community creative arts gallery. Various organisations have hosted round table breakfasts, lifestyle exhibitions and fashion shows proving the flexibility of the space.

THE CIVIC THEATRE

The Civic cinema/theatre was built in 2001 and is situated in the heart of Gunnedah. Patrons to the cinema are able to enjoy The Civics' programming of new releases, art-house and archival films in an intimate atmosphere and luxurious seating. The Civic boasts high-tech digital projection, surround sound and very comfortable seating for up to 134 people.

The Theatre comprises a very well-equipped stage for touring and local theatrical productions and with its superb acoustics it is a popular venue for live music. Informal functions are well suited to the light contemporary space of The Civics' foyer and adjacent Mooki room. Additional meetings and meal rooms are also available within the complex to compliment cinema and theatre functions.

SMITHURST THEATRE

The Gunnedah Smithurst Theatre was built in the 1930's and was home to Gunnedah's Dramatic Society. It was once called The Gunnedah Small Town Hall but was renamed after the Dramatic Society President Dr. Smithurst. The Smithurst is frequently used for conferences, community events, disco's, rehearsals and meetings as well as intimate theatre performances. The Smithurst features a stage, dance floor, air conditioning and heating as well as 3 phase power at the back of the stage. The Smithurst Theatre also has a commercial kitchen and 3 x dressing rooms. Main entrance to the Smithurst Theatre is 144 Conadilly Street.

TOWN HALL

Built in the 1920's, the Town Hall has recently been lovingly upgraded, breathing new life into Gunnedah's Cultural Precinct. The Town Hall stands proudly as a testament to Gunnedah's architectural and civic heritage; with its period features and classic charm resonating with locals and visitors alike. Featuring a vast dance floor, air conditioning and heating, the Town Hall is an ideal venue for hosting special events, conferences, concerts, balls and civic events.

Entrance to the Town Hall is via 144 Conadilly Street.
