SPECIAL EVENTS

FREE NAIDOC Week community screening Monday 6 July I Blood Brothers: Freedom Ride with short film

Join us for a free community screening of Harry's War, a short film from the National Film and Sound Archive's Black Screen collection, followed by Blood Brothers: Freedom Ride. In 1965, students from the University of Sydney formed a group called the Student Action for Aborigines, led by Charles Perkins (an Arrente man born in Alice Springs and the first indigenous Australian to graduate tertiary education), to travel on a Freedom Ride through NSW country towns. Short film (26m) Harry's War is the perspective of an Aboriginal soldier in Japanese-occupied Papua New Guinea based on the real-life experiences of Falkland's uncle, Harry Saunders.

Last Cab to Darwin hits Deckchair! Monday 20 July

At this special preview screening cast and crew will join us before and after the film. From the Director of Last Train to Freo and  ${\it Idiot\,Box}, \ {\it Jeremy\,Sims}, \ {\it brings\,us\,Rex}\ ({\it Michael\,Caton}) \ {\it who\,is\,an}$ isolated loner diagnosed with a serious illness in the remote town of Broken Hill when he decides to take his fate into his own hands and travels to Darwin. On the long cab ride there he must confront himself, his life and the people who love him. Starring Jacki Weaver, Mark Coles Smith and many faces familiar to Darwinites!

Tickets limited, book online. More screenings TBA.

Café Cinema: One Eyed Girl Monday 15 June

Like a book club but for movies; join us and your fellow film lovers after our first screening of Australian thriller One Eyed Girl to chat about the movie over coffee and cake. This is also our Members' free screening for Program 2, so members - please bring your card for free entry.
