SPECIAL EVENTS

Let's Dance for Around the Block

Sunday 28 September

We're celebrating 20 years of Deckchair Cinema with a special presentation by Corrugated Iron, who are celebrating their 30th birthday. Enjoy a feast of theatre and dance tonight both on screen and down our aisles! Plus a special Propeller short film from the Foundation of Young Australians tonight. Proceeds from this evening's ticket sales will be donated by the Darwin Film Society to Corrugated Iron Youth Arts.

FREE entry for children and students.* (ID required)

Haunting Halloween

Friday 31 October

Spooky Halloween vibes are all around tonight with a double feature of freaky films What We Do in the Shadows and Predestination. Come dressed in your best Halloween costume/outfit for your chance to win signed posters, DVDs and other prizes.

Fist Full of Films

14 & 15 November, gates open 5pm

The 15th annual home grown competition, awards and film festival features a feast of Territory talent from filmmakers to actors and musicians. Each year short films of all genres, and music clips, capture a slice of Territory life. The GOLDEN GALAH AWARDS (just like the OSCARS®, only different) acknowledges and rewards outstanding filmmakers inspiring and advancing careers. Come for a night of laughs and local talent.

Mr Hulot's Holiday

CLOSING NIGHT - Sunday 16 November 7.30pm

Celebrate another fantastic year in film at Deckchair on our Closing Night with this nostalgic 1953 French comedy classic. Monsieur Hulot (Jacques Tati himself) takes a seaside holiday where he unwittingly gets caught up in a montage of mishaps giving the film its episodic feel. French with English subtitles.
