Where Stars light the Screen

Australia M

2008 Baz Luhrmann Australia 165m
22 June, 4 July
Set in North Australia in 1930's including the outbreak of WWII and the bombing of Darwin. A sprawling, gorgeous epic, starring Nicole Kidman & Hugh Jackman.

Accidents Happen M

2009 Andrew Lancaster Australia 88m
14, 18, 20, 26 June
Filmed in Australia but set in America, this beautifully told blackly comic story of a young boy who believes he is responsible for a series of bizarre accidents was an audience winner in Sydney - wonderful performances from Harrison Gilbertson and Geena Davis.

Crazy Heart M

2010 Scott Cooper US 111m
19, 25, 28 June & 2 July
The Academy award winning performance by Jeff Bridges, who also sang the songs, in this intimate film about the love of the man and the music. Also with Maggie Gyllenhaal and Robert Duvall.

Going Vertical: The Shortboard Revolution M

2010 David Bradbury Australia 86m
9, 11 July
A stylish & well constructed doco about the emerging surf culture of the 60's and who invented the short board - Aussie Bob McTavish or American Dick Brewer.

How to Train Your Dragon PG

2010 Chris Sanders / Dean DeBlois 98m
17, 21 June and 5 August
Set in the mythical world of burly Vikings and wild dragons, and based on the book by Cressida Cowell, the action comedy tells the story of Hiccup, a Viking teenager who doesn't exactly fit in with his tribe's longstanding tradition of heroic dragon slayers.

Julie and Julia M

2009 Nora Ephron USA 123m
17, 30 July and 2 August
A culinary legend provides a frustrated office worker with a new recipe for life in Julie & Julia. The true stories of how Julia Child's (Meryl Streep) life and cookbook inspired fledgling writer Julie Powell (Amy Adams) to whip up 524 recipes in 365 days.

Micmacs M

2009 Jean-Pierre Jeunet France 105m
8, 14, 16, 20 July
From the Director of Amélie comes a comedy about homelessness, poverty and the weapons industry told with brilliant lapses into animation. A visually stunning, warm and engaging tale about friendship.

Mid August Lunch PG

2008 Gianni di Gregorio Italy 72m
24, 28, 30 July
Reminiscent of the Ealing comedies, a middle aged man is left to mind four elderly, but strong willed women during the August holidays when most locals head out of town. A crowd pleaser!

Nanny McPhee and the Big Bang G

2010 Susanna White UK 109m
26 June & 2 July
In war time England, Nanny McPhee sets out to help a mum save her farm. Things go pear-shaped when two rich, snobbish city cousins, Cedric and his fashion obsessed sister, are billeted with their country cousins, and start their own war.

Separation City MA15+

2009 Paul Middleditch New Zealand 106m
23, 25, 31 July, 6 August
This is a well written relationship drama with wry comic touches. Covering several years and changing location from Wellington to Berlin, it dissects a marriage to uncover some universal truths.

Soul Kitchen MA15+

2009 Fatih Akin Germany 96m
15, 18, 23, 29 June
Zinos runs a successful restaurant which sells bad food and cheap beer. When his girlfriend Nadine leaves for China, he decides to follow. He leaves his brother, a convicted criminal in charge of the business. It isn't long before long the city's underworld have taken over the place and tax collectors are threatening to shut them down.

The Blind Side PG

2009 John Lee Hancock USA 128m
24, 27 July
Based on the extraordinary true story of gridiron star Michael Oher and the well-to-do Memphis family that took him in as a homeless teen - the experience enriching all their lives. Starring academy award winning Sandra Bullock.

The Concert M

2010 Radu Mihaileanu Belgium/France 119m
1, 4, 7 August
A completely, wonderfully preposterous melodrama - rich in detail about a scheme by a former conductor of the Bolshoi Orchestra, to return to his glory days with one last, daring performance of Tchaikovsky's concerto for violin and orchestra. In Paris. Impersonating the real Bolshoi orchestra.

The Eclipse M

2009 Conor McPherson Ireland 84m
3, 5, 10 July
A beguiling Irish film that utilises the backdrop of a provincial book festival and flashes of graphic horror to deliver an original take on middle-aged bereavement - a surprising film with multiple centres of intrigue.

The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo MA15+

2009 Niels Arden Oplev Sweden 153m
30 June, 3, 6, 12 July
The authentic Swedish film version of the incredibly popular gritty detective series featuring Lisbeth Salander as the tattoo sporting, computer hacking punk - brilliantly filmed in evocative Swedish locations.

The Hurt Locker MA15+

2009 Katherine Bigelow USA 131m
Oscar Best Film 2010
3, 6, 8 August
This is a war film without flag waving or sentimental patriotism. It won't tell you why Americans, or indeed Australians, are in Iraq. But it will tell you what it feels like, and why some soldiers, despite themselves, return to combat.

The Kings of Mykonos M

2010 Peter Andrikidis Australia / Greece 102m
13, 16, 18, 21 July
Steve 'The Wog Boy' Karamitsis and his mate Frank will have you laughing all the way on their unpredictable adventure from the unique streets of Yarraville to the villages of sunny Mykonos when Steve discovers he has inherited a beach on the island worth millions from an uncle he has never met.

The Men Who Stare at Goats M

2009 Grant Heslov USA 93m
16, 19, 25, 27 June
Weird and wonderful military comedy set in Afghanistan with George Clooney, Ewan McGregor and Jeff Bridges. A reporter discovers a top-secret wing of the U.S. military when he accompanies an enigmatic Special Forces operator on a mind-boggling mission.

The Princess and the Frog G

2009 Ron Clements & John Musker USA 97m
9, 17 July
An animated fairy tale set in Jazz Age-era New Orleans and centered on a young girl named Tiana and her fateful kiss with a frog prince who desperately wants to be human again.

44 inch Chest MA15+

2009 Malcolm Venville UK 95m
23, 26, 31 July, 7 August
A jealous husband and his friends plot the kidnapping of his wife's lover with the intention of restoring his wounded ego. A mixture of suspense, fury and humour with Ray Winston, John Hurt, Tom Wilkinson & Joanne Whalley.
