Babel MA15+

2006. G Inarritu. 142 m

A tragic incident involving an American couple in Morocco sparks a chain of events for four families in different countries throughout the world. With Cate Blanchett, Brad Pitt and Gael Garcia Bernal

Bra Boys M

2007. Australia. S Abberton. 90 m

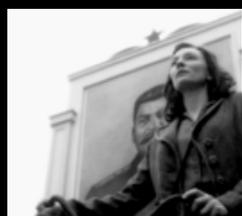

A documentary about the cultural evolution of the inner-Sydney beachside suburb of Maroubra and the social struggle of its youth, featuring the tattooed and much maligned surfing gang, the Bra Boys.

Casanova M

2005. Venice. L Hallstrom. 111m

History's most renowned ladies' man finally meets his match in this historical romance laced with comedy and adventure. Set in Venice in 1753, stars Heath Ledger and Sienna Miller.

The Good German MA15+

2006. US. S Soderbergh. 108 m

Starring George Clooney, Cate Blanchett and Tobey Maguire. A deliciously subversive and very dark noir homage. Set in 1945 in Berlin just after the end of hostilities in Europe. Jake (Clooney) returns to Berlin to cover the 1945 Peace Accord and to catch up with Lena (Blanchett).

The Host M

2006. South Korea. Bong Joon-Ho. 119 m

The US military dumps toxins in Seoul's Han River, forming a mutant monster, which terrorizes the locals. This film broke local box office records with its outstanding special effects and multi-faceted, human characters. Humorous, scary and intelligent.

The Italian M

2007. Russia. A Kravchuk. 99 m

Six year old Vanya, in an extraordinary performance by Kolya Spiridonov, is an orphan adopted by an Italian couple, who needs to know if his birth mother still wants him. A film about maintenance of hope and innocence in a cold climate.

Kenny M

2006. Australia. C Jacobson. 100m

A mockumentary about Kenny Smyth, whose trade is delivering port-a-loos. Kenny juggles family tensions, fatherhood and sewage with wit, charm, humour and unflinching dignity.

The Last King of Scotland MA15+

2007. UK. K Macdonald. 118m

In an incredible twist of fate, a Scottish doctor (James McAvoy) on a Ugandan medical mission becomes irreversibly entangled with one of the world's most barbaric figures: Idi Amin. Forrest Whitaker brilliantly portrays Dictator Idi Amin in this frightening reminder of one of the worst atrocities of the century.

Meet the Robinsons G

2007. US. S Anderson. 94 m

Lewis is an orphan who dreams of finding a family. His journey takes an unexpected turn when a mysterious stranger named Wilbur Robinson whisks him away to a world where anything is possible... the future. A fantastic family animation.

Moulin Rouge M

2001. Australia. Baz Luhrmann. 126 m

Nicole Kidman and Ewen McGregor are star crossed lovers in this colourful, dazzling creation - accompanied by a fantastic music score.

The Namesake M

2006. US. M Nair. 122m

American-born Gogol, the son of Indian immigrants, Ashoke and Ashima, wants to fit in among his fellow New Yorkers, in the face of his family's resistance to relinquish their traditional culture and values. I really loved the movie, so enlightening for us westerners. (Jilla)

The Notorious Bettie Page MA

2007. USA. M Harron. 91 m

Gretchen Mol plays Bettie, a naive but sensual erotic model and bondage specialist in 1950s New York. The fifties details, including the fashions are tremendous.

Noise MA15+

2007. Australia. Matthew Saville. 108m

Graham McGahan (Brendan Cowell) is a cop - almost by default he thinks, self-centered, beset with doubt and afflicted with tinnitus. A few days before Christmas he is sent by his boss to man a police van in a suburban shopping strip, after violent murders rock the local community. A great Australian Film.

Notes on a Scandal MA15+

2006. UK. R Eyre. 92 m

A rare film offering two great female roles, with Judi Dench and Cate Blanchett as two teachers, seemingly worlds apart who confront each other over Blanchett's affair with a student. Thrilling, dramatic and insightful.

Rampage M

2006. US. G Gittoes. 103 m

In his film, Soundtrack to a War, Gittoes met US soldier, Elliott Lovett, who declared he'd been shot at more times in Miami than in Baghdad. This film follows Gittoes & Elliott to America where a real American war is happening

Razzle Dazzle PG

2006. Australia. D Ashton. 91 m

This hilarious satire is set in the preening competitive and elitist area of dance eisteddfods. Kerry Armstrong is the stage Mum from hell, and the dance school owner projects his political ideas onto his students with strikingly funny results.

The Science of Sleep M

2007. France. M Gondry. 106 m

Gael Garcia Bernal is a dreamer living in Paris with a mundane job. However, he escapes into his imagination and the result is a whirlwind of a film, bursting with stop-animation intercut with melancholy romance.

Ten Canoes M

2006. Australia. Rolf de Heer. 90m

NT actor, David Gulpiil narrates the interwoven stories from the past and the present with laconic humour in this wonderful film from Ramingining in Arnhem Land. "A really, really beautiful and important film" David Stratton.

Venus MA15+

2007. UK. R Michel. 95 m

Veteran actors Maurice (Peter O'Toole) and Ian's daily routine is disrupted by the arrival of Ian's grand niece, Jessie. Maurice takes the teenager under his wing as his life draws to a close, learning how little he knows

Who Killed the Electric Car PG

2006. US. C Paine. 92m

Entertaining and informative, this documentary interviews people involved with and affected by this suppressed tragedy. You will laugh, cry and rage throughout this inspirational film which shows we do have the tools to make the world a better place.

Wild Hogs M

2007. USA. W Becker. 99m

Tim Allen, John Travolta, Martin Lawrence and William H. Macy hit the road in this rollicking comedy-adventure about a group of middle-aged friends who decide to rev up their routine suburban lives with a freewheeling motorcycle trip.
