

THE DECKCHAIR CINEMA

ISLANDS IN THE SKY

DIR Godfrey Reggio US 1987
First of the trilogy using Hopi Indian words as titles, Phillip Glass's music underscores Reggio's stunning visionary examination of 'life out of balance' the meaning of the title. 'Powaqqatsi' was the second and 'Naqoyqatsi' is the title of the third now in production.
September 7,9 & 17

ZENTROPA
Starting JEAN-MARC BARR BARBARA SILVERMAN
Directed by LARS VON TRIER
Based on the novel by Peter Handke

dir Lars Von Trier Germany 1991
Jury Prize - Cannes Film Festival
Critics Prize - Sydney Film Festival
A thriller for the mind and senses Zentropa oozes stylistic references to the Welles' Citizen Kane and the films of Hitchcock.
Von Trier presents a visually spectacular film, full of cinematic gimmickry and mischievous journeys of illusion. A welcome return screening of one of the important films of 1992.
September 8,10 & 17

FAREWELL MY CONCUBINE

dir Chen Kaige China 1993
Palm D'or, Cannes Film Fest.
The epic sweep of Chinese history is combined with a very odd version of the eternal triangle made up of a drag artist and a homosexual, a regular Beijing guy and a femme fatale who makes life complicated. All the ingredients are there - war, suicide, treachery, betrayal and opium addiction.
September 11,14 & 16

UNCOMPROMISING BEAUTY
...the soundtrack is unforgettable
Placed among the small number of recent French masterpieces.
Evan Williams • Weekend Australian

Tous les matins du monde

dir Alan Corneau France 1993
Winner of 7 French Oscars including best film
Beautifully photographed, again Depardieu gives a superb performance as the music teacher.
September 23,24 & 30 • October 1

dir Stanley Kubrick GB 1968
A new 35mm print of Kubrick's classic Si-Fi that set the standard by which others are judged. From ape to space travel, the symbolism of mankind's endeavours is pursued. 2001 has lost none of its visual power. September 23 & 24 • Oct. 1

2001 A SPACE ODYSSEY

Flickerfest

Flickerfest is a collection of student films from around the world, the best from up and coming filmmakers.
September 15 & 16

THE SCENT OF THE GREEN PAPAYA

dir Tran Anh Hung Vietnam 1994
Winner Camera d'Or & Prix de la Jeunesse, Cannes 1993, Nomination best foreign film US Academy Awards
An exquisite exploration of a Vietnamese servant girl's private world in 50's Saigon, the film marks a striking debut by 30 year old Tran. Sept. 28,30 • Oct 2

LEOLO

dir Jean Claude Lauzon France Canada 1992
Official selection Cannes Film Festival
An enchanting, hilarious and tragic story about Leo who grows up in an insanely dysfunctional family in Montreal. Strikingly original, critics have hailed the film as a work of pure genius.
October 5,8,13 & 15

Claire of the Moon

dir Nicole Conn US 1994
Nicole Conn's film is a graceful and persuasive evocation of growing passion between two very different women. This has been described as the best lesbian film since Desert Hearts - favourably viewed by mainstream reviewers yet rejected by the New York Gay & Lesbian Film Festival.
October 6 & 7

WIZARD OF OZ

dir Victor Fleming US 1939
Academy Award Best Song and nominated for best picture.
This is a rare screening of a classic film in the continuing monthly family night screenings. It is a vigorous straightforward film memorable for the performances, art direction and hummable tunes. The sepia scenes at the beginning and end were directed by King Vidor.
October 7 & 8

dir Stanley Kubrick GB 1971
It is the Britain of the future, a time of desolation and violence. Alex, a young gangster, guilty of rape and murder, is released from prison after experimental brainwashing. 'Clockwork Orange' forms part of a loose trilogy that included '2001' and 'Barry Lyndon'.
October 14 & 15

LES AMANTS DU PONT-NEUF

dir Leos Carax France 1991
Juliette Binoche - Best actress & Jean-Eves Escoffier Best cinematographer
European Film Awards
Leos Carax has directed a different kind of romantic drama. Alex, a streetwise fire-eater and Michele (Juliette Binoche) an upper-class girl defeated by life's accidents love side-by-side in a vagabond existence on the historic Pont-Neuf which presides over the French capital. Michele, with her internal flame, sparks poetic frenzy in Alex. October 9,12,14 & 16
