

THE DECKCHAIR CINEMA

A
DARWIN FILM SOCIETY
PROJECT.

MAKIN' UP Dir: Katja von Garnier, Germany, 1994, 90min.
Academy Award Best Short Film.

This film achieved enormous success in its home country, and those who don't believe Germans have a sense of humour, it will come as a refreshing surprise. Made for $50,000 as an exercise for the Munich Film School, it is an offbeat, wacky look at female friendship - bright "Hun Fun" about two modern, wisecracking heroines.

26 April, 1, 3 May.
Plus Award Winning Short "Stroke" by Christine Jeffs.

THAT EYE, THE SKY

THAT EYE THE SKY Dir: John Ruane, Australia, 1995, 103min.
Jury Prize Venice Film Festival.
Ruane follows "Death In Brunswick" with a highly original film adaptation of Tim Winton's novel. Ort's 12 year old imagination flies as emotion and mysticism entwine, across the barrier of communication wrought by his father's coma. There is the big, big Australian sky, a wandering American preacher and the search for calm and enlightenment. Few Australian films deal at this mystical level. (M) 15+
